THE FRICK COLLECTION, THE MORGAN LIBRARY & MUSEUM, AND NEUE GALERIE NEW YORK TO INTRODUCE THE CONNOISSEUR PASS IN FIRST-EVER ADMISSIONS COLLABORATION

SPECIAL OFFER WILL BE AVAILABLE TO VISITORS IN JULY AND AUGUST 2017

The Frick Collection, The Morgan Library & Museum, and Neue Galerie New York are pleased to introduce the Connoisseur Pass, a special $40 ticket that provides admission to all three institutions between July 1 and August 31, 2017. The ticket is available for purchase on-site at each museum beginning on July 1, 2017. This is the first admissions collaboration involving the Frick, the Morgan, and Neue Galerie. All three museums were founded by private collectors and occupy intimately scaled buildings of national historic prominence.

During July and August, the three museums are presenting a range of exhibitions that offer something for everyone. On view at The Frick Collection is Fired by Passion: Masterpieces of Du Paquier Porcelain from the Sullivan Collection; Divine Encounter: Rembrandt's Abraham and the Angels; and The Pursuit of Immortality: Masterpieces from the Scher Collection of Portrait Medals. At The Morgan Library & Museum, visitors can view Henry James and American Painting; This Ever New Self: Thoreau and His Journal; Noah's Beasts: Sculpted Animals from Ancient Mesopotamia; and Poussin, Claude, and French Drawing in the Classical Age. Neue Galerie New York presents Austrian Masterworks from the Neue Galerie New York and Richard Gerstl.

Further details about this special offer, as well as exhibition dates, gallery hours, and admissions policies, can be found on the websites of each of the three participating museums.
