

Celebrate the 75th Anniversary of The Frick Collection

Thursday, 16 December 2010 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The museum will be open with no admission charge seventy-five years to the day in 1935 that The Frick Collection first opened its doors to the public.

Enjoy the Frick's permanent collection, which is housed in the 1914 mansion and in galleries and public spaces added to the building in 1935. Experience the recently relit West Gallery and refurbished Boucher Room and see the fall special exhibitions

The Spanish Manner: Drawings from Ribera to Goya and

The King at War: Velázquez's Portrait of Philip IV

OFFERED THROUGHOUT THE DAY:

75th Anniversary Gallery Talks • Museum Shop
First Public Viewing of Archival Frick Footage
