SPECIAL EXHIBITION SHOP FOR
*VERMEER, REMBRANDT, AND HALS

Open through January 19, 2014

For the first time in the institution's history, the Frick has opened an additional Museum Shop space within the building to accompany a special exhibition. Here, visitors will find a rich array of gift items inspired by works in the highly attended fall and winter show Vermeer, Rembrandt, and Hals: Masterpieces of Dutch Painting from the Mauritshuis. These gifts include mugs, tote bags, t-shirts, watches, calendars, and wooden puzzles. Among the related stationary items are note cards, notebooks, and sketch pads. At the heart of the exhibition is Vermeer's Girl with a Pearl Earring, and interest in seeing this work—which has not been shown in New York City in almost thirty years—has resulted in an offering of pearl-related gifts as well as a showcase of cultured and natural pearl jewelry.

The exhibition shop also carries a wide selection of publications. A top seller is the beautifully illustrated exhibition catalogue, which guides readers through the highlights of the magnificent collection of the Royal Picture Gallery Mauritshuis in The Hague. The book features thirty-five masterpieces of portraiture, landscape, genre painting, history, and still-life painting. Together the essays and entries offer an overview of the extraordinary world of the seventeenth-century Dutch Golden Age. Also available in the shop is the critically acclaimed novel The Goldfinch, by Donna Tartt, inspired by the Carl Fabritius painting of the same name. Fans of the painting—which has proven to be a highlight of the exhibition—will find in the shop a Goldfinch tote bag, mug, and other related items.
